A Celebration of Philanthropy and Personal Transformation

Thursday, May 20, 2010 • 4:00 p.m. – 9:00 p.m.

Rubin Museum of Art
150 West 17th Street
New York, NY

This gathering is intended for philanthropic individuals seeking to explore the impact of their giving and innovative ways to transform the lives of others. The program will include stories from individual givers, nonprofit leaders, and those who benefit from the generosity of others. The sessions will be thought-provoking and offer valuable insights on emerging practices in philanthropy. There will also be ample time to talk informally and to expand your circle of peers for future learning and collaboration.

Cocktails, dinner, and a museum tour will be provided.

Members of ASF: $95 Non-members: $115
